Your Love (Tecla Walton, Kevin Doxzen, Richard Walton)

Sittin' on a fence, watching the world go by
Didn't think that it was wrong to be a little shy
Takin' in Your word, grateful for Your grace
Saying every prayer from my safety space
Then one day, You tapped my shoulder
Then one day, You made me bolder

Your love, showed me the way
Your love guides me through each day
Your love has lit such a fire
That I'm no longer content to be
But compelled I was meant to be
Telling the world about your love

Found myself at work, couldn't keep it all inside
Had to spread the news about how You had died
How the price You paid, upon a sinner's cross
Has brought eternal life, in a world that is so lost
On that day, Your light came through me
On that day, I helped a friend see

Chorus

Instrumental bridge

You deserve my love, 'cause You love me all the time
Lifting up Your name is the comfort that I find
Living in Your word, Your truth has set me free
Unconditional, loving you loving me
With You Lord, I will be daring
With You Lord, Your love I'll keep sharing

Chorus
