Shine Your Light (Richard Walton / Timothy McFadden)

Take me where You want to go, I don't care how far
The freedom of the open road, I'll be there where You are You've never let me down before, and I'm sure that you must be
The key to all my troubles locked to deep inside of me

Keep shining Your light, shine Your light on me
Don't ever give up, keep shining Your light on me

The pureness of the raindrops, that fall upon my face
Quench the thirst within my heart, I feel Your saving grace
And when I fall unto my knees, I know You will be there
To save me from the darkness, in my times of despair

Keep shining Your light, shine Your light on me
Don't ever give up, keep shining Your light on me

I can see you in a child's eye that tells me
You've never let me down before
Never let me down before
Never let me down before

Through all the loving kindness, I've found beyond my way
I want You to be with me, until my dying day
And hope the road is safe for all, who often go astray
Lead us back from empty hearts, and fill our souls with praise

Keep shining Your light, shine Your light on me
Don't ever give up, keep shining Your light on me
On me
