The Richard Walton Group is celebrating its 27th anniversary as an accomplished, award winning, multi-genre instrumental group. In 2016, they were nominated 'Best Jazz Artist' by the Maryland Music Awards and a WAMMIE for 'Best Jazz CD' for their highly anticipated CD "Under The Current". They are one of the first contemporary jazz groups to emerge from the Mid-Atlantic area into the national smooth jazz radio market in the mid 1990's. The group's 2006 HDCD, "Junction", is a critically acclaimed studio release that has blessed the group reaching new audiences, supplemented with an array of high profile performances. Their live 'enhanced' CD EP, "Live At Blues Alley", was recorded at a nearly sold-out performance at the world famous jazz club.

Formed in 1991, after being chosen as a semi-finalist in a Mid-Atlantic sponsorship, Richard and his group have gained regional and national recognition through airplay, songwriting contests and performances. In 2006, The Richard Walton Group placed 3rd in the Music Monthly "Mid-Atlantic Reader's Polls" for Best Mid-Atlantic Instrumental Group. The group also received honorable mention in Music Monthly readers' polls as Best Mid-Atlantic Group (instrumental & jazz) during the late 1990's & 2004. Following the releases of their other critically acclaimed compact discs "Hear & Now", "Where Time Stood Still" & "Savannah Blue", Richard and the group have a proven reputation as versatile composers, producers & performers. They have collectively received 40 songwriting awards from numerous songwriting contests and continue to perform throughout the Mid-Atlantic area.
