

Richard Walton ~ 2020 Bio

Richard Walton is one of the youngest inductees in the Maryland Entertainment Hall Of Fame. He is an established, interactive and entertaining solo guitarist/vocalist.

Richard has professionally performed for over twenty five years throughout the Mid-Atlantic region. With a catalogue of over 400 songs and an amazing musical memory, he can make any situation special for any age group and occasion. He currently performs at house concerts/parties, private corporate functions, restaurants, pubs, churches, senior centers, weddings and special occasion events.

In 2019, Richard released his new solo album “Twelve” (vinyl & CD). It was co-produced with his longtime friend, the legendary Rick Witkowski (Crack The Sky co-founder, lead guitarist). Other musicians on the LP include members of Crack The Sky, Richard Walton Group, violinist Tecla Walton (executive producer), and many others.

Richard also currently works in the music duos Three's A Crowd (w/ vocalist Vicki Scarinzi), Rich & Infamous (w/guitarist/vocalist Bryan Miller) and other duos and trios.

He also leads an award-winning multi-genre ensemble; WAMMIE & Maryland Music Award nominated Richard Walton Group. They can be frequently heard on Pandora Radio and lots of other digital radio stations.

He began his musical journey as a musician in Mid-Atlantic cover bands, eventually graduating to a career as a songwriter, publisher, bandleader and recording artist. He formed the publishing & recording company Notlaw Music (Walton spelled backwards). As of 2020, Richard has released 12 worldwide distributed CD's and earned close to 40 songwriting awards.
